Position: Web Application Developer

Location: IT

Pay Class: Full Time

Responsibility Statement:

DotNet web application developer will be responsible for designing and developing high-performance dynamic internal/external web applications, utilizing the latest standards and technologies in web development. You will work closely with the product management and the development team to develop fully functional software applications according to requirements..

Key Responsibilities and Activities:

- Work as a part of an Agile development team to design and implement web applications.
- Responsible for developing high-quality applications and be involved in end-to-end Software Development Life Cycle.
- Self-manage, assigned tasks to ensure projects stay ahead of deadlines
- Analyze and prioritize new feature developments

Education

- University/College degree in Computer Science or equivalent industry work experience.

Knowledge, skills and abilities

- 3+ Experience working with PHP.
- 3+ years of hands on experience designing and developing microservices
- 3+ years of professional experience in NodeJS
- 2+ years of experience with ReactJS
- Proficient in using a modern PHP framework such as Laravel
- Experience with NoSQL Data modeling would be an asset
- Good understanding of NoSQL and SQL databases
- Experience in cloud-native applications, micro-frontends
- Experienced with JavaScript development and build tools (npm, Webpack)
- Working Experience with Docker / Kubernetes
- Exposure to AWS and DevOps fundamentals.

Working Conditions

- Open concept office
- Overtime when required